1973 HEADLIGHT

The 1973 graduating class of Altoona High School has spent four years preparing themselves for the future. The time has passed quickly, but everyone has memories that will last forever. These past four years have meant many things--a time of victory, a time of defeat; a time for learning, a time for fun; and a time for sharing. There were the good times as well as the bad; and now, we have finally come to OUR time--1973 A Time for Us.

Scott Larson and Craig Wenaas show off a Rails' Victory smile.

This one has got to be a STRIKE!!!

Slugger Bill Nyre

The Altoona Baseball team started the 1972 season with three straight victories over Immanuel Lutheran (14-0), Gilman (8-0), and Gilman (7-1), but then lost to Cornell (1-5) before beating arch rival Fall Creek (5-2). The second half of the season was a little less cherry, however, as the Rails fell twice to Cadott (0-5) and (1-4), once each to Cornell (3-7) and to Fall Creek (5-8) before defeating Gilman (5-1) and Immanuel Lutheran (10-1).

The Rails were six wins and five losses as they entered WIAA tournament play.

The first tournament game was against Fall Creek and the Rails put on a fine "come from behind" rally to win (8-5). In the Sub-District championship game Eau Claire North stopped our seventh inning rally to win (2-1).

The Rails showed much improvement at the plate as well as in the field in this, the second year of baseball.

The pitching chores were handled by Kim Sturz and Roger Sundquist, and relief duties were often given to Greg Larson, Scott Larson, Jim Turner and Dale Christ.

Other Rails to see action were Craig Wenaas, Tim McGrouary, Scott Johnson and Carl Duncan.

Look, boys! I can fly!!!

Just one more hurdle left!!!!

The Altoona trackteam had a great 1971-72 season. They had five trackmeets with other schools and came out with a record of four wins and one loss.

The scores were as follows: Altoona (69) Cadott (58); Altoona (76) Eleva Strum (51); Augusta (71) Altoona (56); Altoona (66) Mondovi (61); Altoona (89) Fall Creek (35).

Altoona also participated in three triangular trackmeets. They placed second in all three meets: Osseo Fairchild ($72\frac{1}{2}$) Altoona (50) and Augusta (48); Elk Mound ($72\frac{1}{2}$), Altoona (45), and Colfax ($26\frac{1}{2}$); Elk Mound (71), Altoona ($54\frac{1}{2}$), and Fall Creek ($26\frac{1}{2}$).

It was also a pleasure for Altoona to send three boys to the Class C State Tournament in Madison: Steve Hugdahl, Scott Carlson, and Gary Bentley. Steve Hugdahl came home with a second in the 440.

Mr. Schroeder is proud of his track team.

“Precious and Few”

Junior and senior couples who served on the court were: Eddie Bohn and Stacy Green; Mark Sundquist and Linda Nyre; Dave Ely and Renee Manor, Sandy Leonhard and Kim Sturz; Theresa Schafer and Brad Olson.

Although it was raining outside, inside it was warm and romantic, a beautiful setting for the Junior Prom held on May 5, 1972. The Junior class built their prom around the theme "Precious and Few".

Upon entering the gymnasium, the couples walked through a Rhododendron Arbor and found themselves in a French atmosphere consisting of a twelve foot Eifel tower done in royal blue and black. Punch was served by Gail Wick and Anita Wagner. Music was provided by the Rick Tiller Quartet.

The Grand March was at 10:15. The girls, dressed in their beautiful gowns, formed their line on one side of the gym and the boys, handsomely attired in tuxedos, formed their line on the other side as Mr. Grafenauer called the girls' names and whoever escorted them. They then met on the colorful bridge where pictures could be taken. After this came the highlight of the evening which was the crowning of King Dave Ely and Queen Renee Manor. Tommy and Lisa Bement, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Bement, served as crown bearers although Mark Sundquist and Linda Nyre did the actual crowning. A delightful evening was had by everyone who attended.

Music was provided by the Rick Tiller Quartet.

Dave and Renee enjoy the Royal Dance.

Tommy and Lisa Bement participated as crown bearers.

Red roses were presented to Mrs. Thompson.

Balloons floated gently to the floor while couples danced.

A very special moment for Bob and Laurie.

Roger and Paula enjoy the Grand March.

A very precious moment for Bill and Sandy.

Ed and Stacy were members of the court during the Grand March.

Altoona's Talent

The play "Beauty and the Beef" was presented in April. After grueling tryouts the leading roles were given to Gail Brennan, Connie Cota, Colin Everson, Linda Nyre and Bill Nyre. Other roles were given to Sue Beaver, Vicki Bridges, Ruth Harris, Teresa Huf-tel, Steve Hugdahl, Ann Mon-son, Greg Ottinger, Terry Patton, Kathy Reed, John Reed, Roger Sundquist, Mark Sundquist, Terri Trehey. The actors alone don't make-up the entire play. There also is a stage crew and a make-up crew involved in this display of talent. The make-up crew shows some of their unique hair techniques in the photo on this page; of course without the stage crew the actors wouldn't have had any props to emphasize the set-ting.

Fun and laughter were com-mon place in this play which con-cerned the Winnebagashi football team in the small town of Win-nebagashi. The Winnebagashians put on a fine play for the enjoy-ment of everyone.

Spirit descended on the Rails at the Bon Fire.

A memorable evening.

King and Queen Candidates: Paul Larson, Cindy Jordan, Lou Ann Hall and Gary Bentley.

The festivities throughout Homecoming week were filled with enthusiasm. The week began with Dress-Up Day. Odd Ball day followed with mounting excitement. There was quality, uniqueness and most of all humor in the apparel the students wore. A new addition to A.H.S.'s Homecoming Tradition was "Be Kind to Teacher's Day." At night the Pep Assembly and Bon Fire were bursting with spirit. Thursday, Loyalty Day was respected as usual. The parade was held that night leading right into the game against the Gilman Pirates. At half time, the omnipotent Sophomores won First place on their float with the theme, "Drag'um to De-feat." The Freshmen placed second with "Pickle the Pirates," and the Seniors placed third with the theme, "Rails Treasure A Victory." The Rails defeated the Pirates 22 to 8. Friday night, Faustus performed for the Homecoming Dance. A victorious week was concluded as Paul Larson and Lou Ann Hall were crowned King and queen.

Swinging with Faustus!

Rails had Spirit throughout the Festivities.

Snow Flake Fantasy

On December 19, 1972, the Altoona Seniors held their annual Christmas dance, from 8 to 11 P.M. The music was provided by Community.

Decorations were furnished by the Altoona Art Department, which consisted of colorful posters of Christmas, gigantic snow flakes and the three way bridge in red and green crepe paper which was used in introducing the members of the court.

Santa Claus, who was Luther Stene, presented the crowns to the Vice Queen Paula McFadden and Vice King Greg Thompson who then crowned the King and Queen. Other court members were Cathy Balow, Jay Gonyea, Ann Munson, Bruce Pecor, Carol Pope, Jeff Gutsch, Karen Sloat, and Scott Munden.

This dance ended the 1972 school year in fine fashion.

Altoona High School's Student Council consists of members from each class who work to help us, the students of Altoona, to have a voice in what concerns our school.

Included in this year's projects were openCampus for Seniors 1st, 6th, and 7th hours. New school sweat-ers were purchased and sold almost immediately. Al-so a scholarship award is presented to a senior each year.

Candidate Dave Ely with man-ager Brad Olson.

National Honor Society members are chosen for their leadership, service, and character. Not only are they competent students but also they become involved in varied activities. The National Honor Society is in its third year at Altoona.

Last year we had nineteen members participate in Forensics. Each student could choose from one of nine categories to work on. State winners were Linda Nyre, Gerri Lasiuk, Ann Monson, Cathy Poppe, and Roger Sundquist.

This year Altoona had four students compete in the Freedom's Challenge speech. They were: Junior, Lynn Hasenmueller; seniors, Mark Kovar, Ann Otto, and Ann Monson. Ann Otto placed second in area competition in this Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsored contest. We congratulate all of these students for a job well done!

Unique Learning Techniques

Put in Action

Schools participating in the first year of Capstone Courses were Altoona, Augusta, Fall Creek, and Osseo-Fairchild. Altoona hosted Office Practice while Osseo-Fairchild offered Health Occupations and Augusta gave Auto Mechanics.

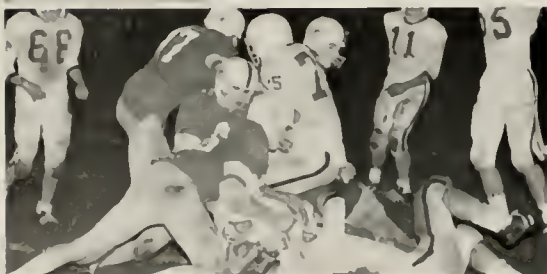

Capstone Courses are designed for the students' benefit. Upon the completion of the course, he or she may more easily find a suitable job after high school. The courses are open to any Junior or Senior enrolled in the participating schools.

It has proved to be an excellent program and we will add to the course development next year.

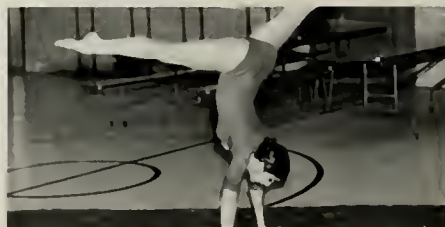

At Altoona we have started a new program in which high school students help sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who are having trouble in a certain subject. The tutors are all volunteers and leave their study halls twice a week to go tutor the students to whom they are assigned. Working on a one to one basis solves a lot of problems the students may have who are being tutored. It has been a complete success, and we hope it will continue to be so.

Class officers: Vice Pres., Luther Stene; Pres., Ed Bohn; Sec. Treas., Bill Nyre.

Ed Bohn and Stacy Greene show that our prom was a most memorable time.

"Rail's Treasure A Victory" was our theme for the Senior float which won us a third place.

Memorable Events

Football players were presented with a cake for their efforts in the greatest season of Altoona's football history.

Paul and Cindy will long remember the activities which they participated in.

Is this the correct way to dress in an office atmosphere?

Cake decorating was an enjoyable experience in Advanced Cooking as Cathy Balow displays the completed cakes.

Lou Ann Hall and Violet Nowicki will long remember the goal they reached from many long rehearsals in gymnastics.
